ROCKFORD PLAYS IN DIXON SUNDAY

FOREST CITY TEAM WILL MEET STARS AT ATHLETIC PARK.

DIXON BROWNS GO TO STERLING

Browns Will Arrange Series of Brilliant Games for the Post-Season Games.

The Dixon Stars and the Rockford Athletics will meet at Athletic park in this city at 3 p. m. tomorrow for their second game of the year and the Stars are determined to avenge themselves for the 3 to 2 defeat administered by the Athletics May 18. The locals are in excellent condition and will put up an excellent game, and as they have not been seen in an engagement here for a fortnight a large attendance of their friends is expected.

Browns to Sterling.

The Browns go to Sterling tomorrow to meet the West Ends and in all probability Grant, the new pitcher recently found by Capt. Vaile, will be on the mound tomorrow, with Huber working against the Sterlings Labor day there.

After Big Games.

The Browns are endeavoring to arrange a series of games with some team to meet the Oshkosh-Dixon team, which will be composed of five members of the league leaders of the W. C. league reinforced by Dixon tossers. The Oshkosh players, who will come here with "Rip" Tracey at the conclusion of the league season, Sept. 14, will play ten or fifteen games in this vicinity and to make the opportunity of interest to fans, Business Manager Goodman of the Browns will go to Chicago this evening to negotiate with some of the professional teams there for a series of games in this section.

HAD PTOMAIN POISONING

The many friends of E. Hill Leith who went to Los Angeles for his health about two years ago, will be pleased to learn that he recently escaped serious results from ptomaine poisoning. He writes that he suffered intensely for about 12 hours and was ill for two days, during which he suffered a perceptible loss in weight, but that he has now fully recovered from the effects of the poison.

Kindergarten Needed In South Side Schools

An investigation of the kindergarten system now in operation in North Dixon, under the supervision of the public schools, and free to all, will convince the most skeptical that the kindergarten is an institution that is a vital need on the south side.

Ask any North Dixon mother or father ask Superintendent H. V. Baldwin, or any member of the North Dixon school board, if they are sorry they have the kindergarten and they will tell you that the starting of the school for little children, too young to go into the primary grades, was one of the best moves ever made in North Dixon.

The south side is not keeping abreast of the times on the school question.

The lack of needed branches in the Dixon schools is not to be blamed upon the members of the school board, the superintendent or the faculty.

The men in charge of the affairs of the public schools are all anxious to see every practical advancement made, we are sure, but they do not want radical changes until they are sure they have the support of the voters.

If the people of Dixon will let the members of the school board know they want the kindergarten, and want it badly, they will surely get it.

The children of well-to-do families are better off in kindergarten, and the institution would be a blessing to poorer parents.

Many women, especially widows with small children, have to go out each day to earn their living. They cannot afford to employ help to care for their children while they work, and the kiddies must run wild or the mother must stay at home, and either plan is a bad one for, if the children are not watched and trained and cared for they get a bad start in life, physically and mentally, and if the mother cannot go out to work they all suffer from a lack of funds and in many cases the whole family must be supported by the county.

It is not too late to arrange for a kindergarten for the Dixon children for this year, and the action should be taken.

METHODISTS PLAN A BIG GALA DAY

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED AT ASSEMBLY PARK BY HUNDREDS.

DIXON BROWNS GO TO STERLING

Browns Will Arrange Series of Brilliant Games for the Post-Season Games.

Plans for the annual outing of the Methodist church Sunday school are completed and a full day of excitement is assured to all who attend. Last year over 700 people enjoyed the outing and there will undoubtedly be many more this year. In the morning at 10:30 a ball game will be played between two of the boys' classes of the S. S. At 12 m. the picnic dinner, at which lemonade and coffee under the direction of the refreshment committee, of which Robert Caughey is chairman, will be served free to all. The quality of the refreshments served by this committee will not be forgotten from last year. Bring your glass or cup and help yourself.

After dinner the races for boys and girls, men and women will be enjoyed. Prizes will be given the winners. The games committee, of which Sec. E. T. Bailey is chairman, announces some new races and lots of excitement. This feature will last from 1 to 1:45 p. m., when the concert by the Marine band will be the treat. The band will march to the ball park and while playing a piece or two there will be a balloon race between three classes of the S. S. After the balloon races the great baseball game of the season will be played. Last year the men of Mr. Ahrens' ble ble class came from behind and won from the young men of Mr. Stone's class. This year the young men are in to win. A fierce and powerful battle is assured, the friendly rivalry being very keen and about equal interest will be taken by the crowd in the two sides.

After the battle of baseball a great surprise will be enjoyed by all. Some more balloon ascensions will be enjoyed and the program will be over.

The Methodist Sunday school in this way wishes to invite one and all of any Sunday school or no Sunday school to come and enjoy the day at Assembly park.

Bring your baskets and spend the day. Everything is free and the invitation is yours.

ATTEND SULLIVAN FUNERAL.

Hon. J. P. Devine went to Rochelle this morning to attend the funeral of D. T. Sullivan, the obsequies being held at 9:30 a. m.

DE PALMA FIRST IN ELGIN GRIND

ITALIAN SWEEPS ACROSS LINE WITH AN AVERAGE OF 66.8 MILES AN HOUR.

DAWSON COMES IN SECOND

Chandler Gets Third Place in Elgin Automobile Contest—Endicott Car Bursts Into Flame.

FACTS OF CHICAGO AUTOMOBILE CLUB TROPHY RACE.

Winner—Ralph De Palma. Winning car—Mercer. Second—Joe Dawson, in a Deltal. Time of winner—4:39.52. Prizes—C. A. C. trophy and $1,750. Fastest lap—Rickenbacher, 70 minutes, flat. De Palma's average—66.3 miles per hour. Dawson's average—65.2 miles per hour. Dawson's prize—$500. De Palma's fastest lap, 7 minutes 7 seconds.

Today's Race.

Time of start—11 o'clock. Track closes at 10:30. Probable time of finish—3:45 p. m. Distance of race—301 miles (36 laps). Record of any race held on the course—Sixty-eight miles an hour, made by Ralph De Palma last year.

Elgin, Ill., Aug. 30.—With one of the contesting cars on fire on one side of the track and the militia unable to keep the throng of spectators from swarming over the course, Ralph De Palma finished first in the contest for the Chicago Automobile club trophy here Friday.

Joe Dawson, ever a favorite of the automobile race fans, took second place in his Deltal, while Chandler in a Mason was awarded third place after a contest in which was exhibited some of the best racing generalship ever witnessed in the west.

There were no accidents to mar the sport, with the possible exception of slight injuries sustained by Harry Endicott in his Nyberg car, which burst into flames on the back stretch.

His Injuries Trivial.

The driver, accompanied by his mechanic, was taken to the hospital, where it was said his burns were trivial and that exhaustion from the long grind was the principal thing for which the physicians were treating him.

After the last signal bomb had left its wreath of smoke in the cloudless sky, the rapid explosions of the racers as they drew up to the starting line sent the first thrill through the crowd. Then, when Dawson, in his Deltal, cut a hole through the blue smoke of the track about him and sped down the course, the audience which lined the eight miles of roadway settled back to put its blessings upon the favorites. Dawson was first away, and at intervals of thirty seconds Starter Wagner tapped De Palma, in the Mercer; Rickenbacher, in the Mason; Wishart, in a Mercer; Chandler, in a Mason; Harry Endicott, in his Nyberg; Mulford, in a Mason, and Luttrell, in a Mercer, and they were off.

Mulford Has to Retire.

The contest settled down to a series of wild spurts, the intervals between the passing of the cars being marked by the floating of unfounded rumors of wrecks and disaster on other parts of the track.

Mulford, "the driver with the smile," who is always a favorite on the race tracks of the country, dropped out in the tenth lap when a crank shaft in his Mason broke.

De Palma's elapsed time for the whole distance was 171.56 minutes, which was at an average speed of 66.8 miles per hour. Dawson's time was 279.52 minutes, while Chandler finished third.

The details of the race show that the contest was one of the finest exhibitions of skillful driving and generalship ever seen in the west.

From the tenth lap on it was apparent to spectators that De Palma and Dawson were masters of the field. Both were driving like wild men and each seemingly was determined that the honors of the day should be his. De Palma's Mercer and Dawson's Deltal were fit as a fiddle throughout the long grind and each stopped at the pits only three times.

The Italian's time, 66.8 miles an hour, while not extraordinary, compares favorably with the 65.1 for the Illinois trophy race of last season, in which were entered larger cars and for a distance of only 200 miles.

VAN PETTEN CASE CONTINUED A WEEK

MOST OF THE CREDITORS ARE SAID TO HAVE BEEN PAID.

On motion of Attorneys Brooks & Brooks, representing A. G. VanPetten, the hearing on claims against him, which was set before Referee Henry S. Dixon for this morning, has been continued a week. It is understood that the claims of all but one of the creditors have been liquidated and that in all probability the remaining claim will be settled this week, in which case the petition will be dismissed next Saturday.

FINED FOR VIOLATING TRAFFIC ORDINANCE

RALPH LIEVAN IS ASSESSED $5 AND COSTS FOR RUNNING PAST CAR.

The offense, to which the young man pleaded guilty, occurred Thursday evening and witnesses report that the auto nearly ran over a small boy. Mr. Lievan was fined $5 and costs, which he paid.

A CORRECTION.

Inadvertently it was stated in last evening's Telegraph that, the third grade of the south Dixon schools would be housed in the high school building on Fifth and Hennepin.

ELK CLAM BAKE WILL BE SEASON'S EVENT

ALL IS IN READINESS FOR THE ENORMOUS CROWD THAT WILL BE HERE.

BOOTHS AND TENTS ALL READY

Program of the Day is Full One and You Should Get There Early and Miss Nothing.

Monday is the day. The Elks and all their friends in this section of the state will be on Watson's Island to enjoy the Dixon Elks' annual clam bake and barbecue and that every possible detail for entertainment will be ready was demonstrated today, when the heads of the various sub-committees reported to Chairman Charles E. Miller that they were all ready.

The island has been cleaned up, booths and tents are up, the great amount of food has been purchased and will be prepared early Monday morning, the vaudeville acts have assured the committee that they will be here, the Elks' minstrels will sing the songs that were so popular in their show, Tonnerman and Beall will do some of their best wrestling, the Marquette orchestra will play all day and the committee on "eats" and refreshments will be busy taking care of the wants of the inner man.

The entertainment will begin at 9 a. m., when the first boats will leave the north and south side docks. The vaudeville stunts, including Waldo Whipper, the famous Rube Minstrel, and the noted Empire State Male Quartet will entertain from 1:30 on till the close of the day's pleasures, and their acts will be interspersed with music by the orchestra and songs by the Elks' minstrels. The big wrestling match which is due to be a pleasing card, will take place after dinner.

Noon will be the best time on the island, for at that time the serving of refreshments will commence and those who have read the requisitions of the "eats" committee are convinced that some mighty good food, and plenty of it, will be ready for consumption at that time.

An enormous crowd will certainly be present. The demand for tickets for the affair has greatly exceeded any previous year and in addition the Elks of many neighboring cities have asked for reservations for a large crowd. It's going to be a big and a happy day and Watson's will be the center of interest for the men folks of this part of the state on Labor day.

TEARING DOWN THE OLD GRAND STAND

I. N. U. FEARS COLLAPSE OF THE STRUCTURE AND HAS IT RAZED.

To avoid liability for accidents due to the collapse of the old grandstand at Athletic park, the I. N. U. this morning put a force of men at work razing it and by evening it is expected the work will be completed and the old structure, which has been occupied by thousands of Dixon fans, will be reduced to a pile of lumber.

The company officials state that this action has been taken to avoid injuries due to a possible collapse of the stand, which has been condemned, but there is a general opinion that work on the new power house will begin soon.

CIRCUIT COURT IS ADJOURNED FOR TERM

JUDGE HEARD GRANTED PARTITION DECREE IN MILLER VS. MILLER.

The April term of the Lee county circuit court has been adjourned, and no more justice will be dispensed in that tribunal until the September term convenes, on Monday, September 15th. Judge Heard came down from Freeport this morning to close the April term, which action he took after granting a decree for partition in the suit of Miller vs. Miller.

LEE BOARD OF REVIEW RAISES TAX FIGURES

STEPHENSON COUNTY INCREASE IS $250,000, BUT LEE'S IS $450,000.

The Freeport newspapers are publishing reports from the work of their board of review and say that the board has increased the tax figures of Stephenson county about $250,000, which they think is very large.

The Lee county board of review, which is still at work at the court house but will be finished in a few days, has already increased the figures in this county about $450,000, nearly a half million increase. Detailed reports will be published later.

Vocational Studies Would Benefit High Schools

Both of the Dixon high schools should be equipped with full courses in vocational education. The majority of the children of Dixon people expect to work for their living when they finish school and they should be taught something of the practical, working side of life.

Latin and physics are good things to know, but they are not nearly so valuable to the boy who must work in factories and at manual labor as a scientific course in machine work, carpenter work, or some such trade would be. And if the boy cannot get these courses, which he needs, he stops school, in many instances.

A course in stenography, typewriting, bookkeeping, added to the studies he can now pursue, will give a high school graduate a big start in the business world. Mythology and astronomy are not bad things to study, after the scholar has learned everything else, but they won't get our young American the foremanship in the factory nearly as quickly as a practical, scientific training in modern mechanics. A few hours a week in the foundry at the Grand Detour Plow works would cheat many a pick and shovel from someone to swing them.

In other cities of consequence the high school boys have the privilege of various high school courses that include the learning of a respectable, lucrative trade. In Freeport Ill., the public school is equipped with modern machine shops—lathes and various other machines. They work in iron, wood and, beside the high class schooling they receive in the studies necessary for an educated, finished scholar, they are trained in the practical, modern methods of handling the work in the vocation they have chosen, and they can easily and quickly outrank their less fortunate brother workmen.

Girls should, and in Freeport and other cities, do learn scientific cooking, sewing, bookkeeping, stenography, typewriting, etc., as well as ordinary school work and as most girls take up some kind of work when they finish school, it is a saving and a help to them, and the training better equips them to make good, economical, successful wives and mothers.

The Telegraph believes that a movement to put the needed courses, vocational and kindergarten, into the Dixon schools has the support of the tax payers. They should let the school directors know their wish, through the press or by personal interview with some member of the board.

OPEN NEW FACTORY HERE ON MONDAY

DIAMOND REMEDY COMPANY IS TO COMMENCE OPERATIONS THEN.

Dixon's newest industry, the Diamond Remedy company, will open their factory in the Fletcher Manufacturing company's plant Monday, and the manufacture of Sal Tonic, a preparation for the regulation of animal ailments and disorders and the new concern commences business with every prospect for a bright future.

F. Benson, president of the company, has had five years' experience in manufacturing stock foods and remedies and is authority for the statement that Sal Tonic will meet the demand of animal owners over the country, for he claims for it properties not embodied in any one preparation. The tonic is good for horses, hogs, cattle and sheep and its ingredients are such as to benefit all animals.

The building has been equipped to meet the requirements of the company and will be able to care for the great demand the promoters confidently expect. C. H. Gray, secretary and treasurer of the company, will look after the clerical and sales departments and the best wishes of many friends follow the company.

Decorative Hatbands.

Not only in modern times have the women of the west looked to the east for inspiration in dressing. The trimming band on the hat of the present day is a reminder that of old women of the east tied their headdress—veil or turban, or whatever it was—about their heads with bands. As long ago as 3500 B. C. women in Egypt were binding their headdresses on with fillets. They tied these bands so that they looked much like the band and ends of the sailor's hat today. Gradually these bands were made more and more decorative until at last when bonnets, then hats, made the fillets unnecessary a band about the hat was retained, simply because of its ornamental value. A strange beginning is this for the elaborate folds of ribbon and bands of velvet and wreaths of flowers and ostrich and marabou, which today encircle our hat crowns.

Buffalo Bill in

FINANCIAL TROUBLE

Local admirers of Col. William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) will regret to learn that he is encountering financial difficulties. It was generally supposed that he had a snug fortune laid aside for old age. A press dispatch, however, indicates otherwise.

ILLINOIS NEWS NOTES

Moline—Louis Schroder, a Rock Island saloonkeeper, committed suicide by drowning in the Mississippi river. Later when the body was found a note was discovered in a pocket of the clothing, which said he would rather kill himself than go to an insane asylum. His family had been preparing to send him to the state asylum.

Bloomington—The Quakers of Illinois, in annual conference here, heard Prof. Wilhelm Miller of the University of Illinois, tell the Illinois way of beautifying the farm.

Elgin—An unusual accident at Geneva took the life of Harry Waffle, of Chicago, a lineman for the Chicago Telephone company. He was unloading a spool of heavy cable from a wagon, when the cross arm he was using for a lever slipped striking him squarely in the face. It broke both jaws and crushed in his skull.

Springfield—Acting Governor O'Hara issued a requisition on the governor of Kentucky for the return to East St. Louis of James Watson and Robert Doe, who are under arrest at Paducah, and who are wanted in this state on a charge of burglary and larceny.

Moline—George Pettit dived thirty-seven feet off Rock river bridge, and saved Mrs. Ralph Hester from drowning.

Quincy—Mildred Timmerwik, 21 years old, saved the life of her companion, Estelle Heinz, 9 years old as the latter was sinking for the last time in the Mississippi. The two had been in bathing and the near victim was caught in the current. Miss Timmerwik grabbed her playmate by the hair and towed her to shore while her hand was clasped over the dying girl's mouth.

Centralia—Rev. D. F. Snider, pastor of the Christian church, who came here from Clarence, Okla., about four weeks ago, was found in the bathroom at the parsonage. Death was due to heart disease. Old Age Not Always Mellowing.

It seems that age is not always a mellowing process. I have known old ladies from whom people fled as from the plague. An assertive presence; a loud and commanding voice; eyes which could stare the offender out of countenance, and a fixed determination to have their own way about everything, made up a whole before which children and servants quailed, and even the average brave man trembled in his boots. According to all reasonable argument, our good qualities should become emphasized and our bad ones fade away as we grow old, otherwise we have lived in vain; the years have taught us nothing. What avail the hard lessons of life if we do not profit by them? Suffer them we must, but suffering is turned into triumph when they teach us how to live, even if this knowledge comes to us only in the evening of life. Wisdom, forbearance, self-control, and unselfishness are what we naturally expect from the old, because, like the girl in the song, they've had "experience." So many are prone to become what the French call "difficult" with age. They are hard, sometimes impossible. Try not to become combative in your viewpoint. Be tolerant of others if you would avoid a loveless old age.

Denver, Colo.—Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Pawnee Bill's Wild West show did not leave for Colorado Springs to fill its date in that city. Instead it remained in Denver, held fast by an attachment for $66,000 and the failure of its owners to agree on a settlement.

Under the writ of attachment in favor of the United States Lithographing and Printing company of Chicago, which was issued Monday afternoon, deputy sheriffs collected the proceeds made Monday night, some $6,200 and were again on hand last night.

Adolph Marks of Chicago who represents the lithograph company, is said to have agreed to allow the company to proceed on its tour on the payment of $25,000 of the $66,000 claim. Major Gordon W. Lillie (Pawnee Bill) agreed to pay his share of this amount, but could not come to an understanding with Col. W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) whereby the latter would meet his share.

(Old lines, but always interesting.) I observed a locomotive in the railroad yard one day;

It was waiting at the roundhouse, where the locomotives stay;

It was panting for its journey, it was coiled and fully manned,

And it had a box the fireman was filling full of sand.

FAMILY THEATRE

The present excellent bill at the Family theatre, which includes theSociety Sextette and Jack Polk, the comedian, has enjoyed an unusually large attendance and will doubtless pack the theatre for the remaining two nights, as both acts are unusual ly clever.Pictures tonight:
Broncho Billy's Capture.
Cinderella and the Boob.
The Convict.

FAMILY THEATRE

The Family theatre, Dixon's cozy playhouse, will open Monday evening Sept. 1 under the management of Mr. Geo. Slothower. Commencing on this date, the best vaudeville attractions possible to obtain will be seen at the Family. The opening program under the new management will include the Empire State Quartet, four clever singing comedians, who devoted the time allotted to them to real entertainment by harmony and soul singing of a very high order inter-persed with up to the minute witticisms that are always appreciated.
This number will prove a revelation to Dixon theatre goers. As an extra attraction the dainty Krough Sisters in songs and dances will complete this splendid program.

PRINCESS THEATRE

"King Rene's Daughter" presented by the Thanhauser Co., will be the attraction at the Princess Theatre Monday night, with Miss Maude Fealy in the leading role. This is a poetic drama from the Danish of Henrich Herl, the famous poet.
King Rene's daughter is stricken blind in her early childhood and the only cure is utter seclusion until the age of sixteen with no company.
The marriage of King Rene's daughter to Count Vandermont is the only relief from a great feud. This wonderful picture in three reels Monday night.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE, CHICAGO

The next attraction to be seen at George M. Cohan's Grand Opera House, Chicago, is announced as "Stop Thief," a farce that Cohan & Harris presented with much success at the Gaiety Theatre, New York City, all of the past theatrical season. The new offering will follow
"The Tik-Tok Man of Oz," beginning the fall season at the Grand on Aug. 31st, and remaining for an indefinite period.The story of "Stop Thief," centers around William Carr, a millionaire kleptomaniac, whose morbid inclination to steal is known only to his immediate family, who are constantly fearing that the closely guarded secret will be discovered. The mil-lionaire's daughter is engaged to be married, and her intended husband, though she is ignorant of it, is also a victim of the same morbid mania that possesses her father.The day before the wedding the young man calls, and being shown a valuable collection of wedding gifts that have arrived, is immediately obsessed with a desire to steal them, as is also his father-in-law to be,
who has already been caught exercising his mania and compelled to return the stolen articles.The young man, to curb his desire phones for a detective to come and watch him. In the meantime a genuine thief is let into the house by a new maid, and when discovered in the act of leaving with all of the valuables he can carry, is mistaken for the expected detective and introduced to the family as the nearbridegroom's best friend.Unexpectedly thrust into this queer situation, the real thief proceeds to loot the house at leisure, and as one valuable after another disappears, the father and son in law accuse themselves of the thefts, though they have no recollection of having committed them.Carlyle Moore, the author of "Stop Thief," is said to have shown much skill in devising situations that are mystifying and productive of much hearty laughter in this new offering at the historic Grand.County Treasurer Frank Vaughan attended the funeral of D. T. Sullivan at Rochelle this morning.Miss Emma O'Brien of Chicago, who has been ill for some time, is much better and she writes that she will be in Dixon next week.

ten days after his return from the fall maneuvers and thirty days after vaccination, was reported by his attending physician as one of typhoid, but at an autopsy performed by Dr.
Leary, head of the department of pathology and bacteriology at Tufts' medical school, attended by other eminent Massachusetts doctors, other causes of death and the presence of influenza bacilla were identified, but no trace of a typhoid bacillus or of the ordinary evidences of typhoid were found.The positive evidence of the efficacy of this preventive of typhoid fever is overwhelming in tests among large bodies of men subject to conditions prior to the discovery of the vaccine, and its adoption by military authorities as an essential precaution in camp life is becoming general. There is a natural and proper degree of hesitation over general acceptance of newly discovered preventives, but the need of more effective methods of battling with typhoid epidemics in the cities is so great, that, in view of the body of experience in military life, which has been uniformly successful, the resort to such vaccination as a check against the spread of the disease in a civic community seems to be warranted, if not demanded. In spiteof every precaution against the inroduction of the typhoid germ, through the protection of food and drink, every year sees an epidemic of greater or less extent in nearly every city of any considerable size.
If compulsory vaccination would prevent the development of new cases from the first patient, and confine the spread of the disease to the scope of the original cause, an important check on the disease would be established. Familiarity with vaccination would lead naturally to as general application as in the case of smallpox vaccination and typhoid would become as infrequent as that dread plague.

Common Sense From a Chef.

Many housewives think that French chefs have notions which are too high flown to be of use to the ordinary home cook. "They have so much to do with," complains the home cook, "they are so used to working with large quantities of supplies that they know nothing of the needs of the home kitchen, where economy must be practiced. Here is a hint from a chef which may well be put in practice by any home cook. When cutting tarts first stamp out the rings. Roll the trimmings into a ball, then roll them into a thin sheet with the rolling pin, and stamp out the rounds to go under the rings. In this way there is no waste of crust. Yet do not most home cooks first stamp the rounds and then the rings and leave much of the trimming to take care of itself?"

LABOR'S LEGIONS

By JAMES A. EDGERTON

Copyright, 1913, by American Press Association

I.
IN the glory of the morning
That is breaking round the world,
With its golden light adorning
A new flag of hope unfurled
By the hosts of brotherhood
That enlist in every nation,
Battling for the common good
And for all men's elevation,
There is heard a mighty chorus
And ten million voices call:
"Brothers, clear the way before us!
All for each, and each for all!"

II.
'TIS the army of endeavor,
With their faces to the dawn,
One today and one forever,
Labor's legions, marching on!
And their feet are keeping time
To the music of production,
To the harmony sublime
Of creation and construction.
Hammers beating, spindles humming,
Engines pulsing day and night,
Throb in tune with Labor's coming Million-handed for the right.

III.
Oh, the new age they have brought us!
Have you thought of it, my brother?
And the new creed they have taught us,
Based on love of one another!
In the twinkling of an eye
Comes a mighty transformation.
All the old age has gone by.
This is God's new dispensation:
That the men who fill the measures
Of earth's wealth shall now employ them;
That the men who make the treasures
Shall control them and enjoy them.

IV.
LIKE an army brave with banners,
They are coming up the way,
Let us greet them with hosannas,
Heralds of a better day.
Have we seen and understood
What the thing is they are bringing—Visions of the great and good —Since the morning stars were singing?
'Tis a harvest of God's gleaming Growing since earth's primal plan,
And its new and mighty meaning
Is the brotherhood of man—

V.
BROTHERHOOD as wide as earth is—
Love of God and love of neighbor!
And the cause of this new birth is
The united ranks of Labor.
Yet a higher hope they hold
And a brighter, gladder promise
That the slaughters known of old
And the stripes are passing from us.
Long sought and long overdue time,
Comes the age when war shall cease!
For these soldiers of the new time
Are the messengers of peace.

VI.
IN the old and blood stained ages,
When Greed ruled with iron law,
When the toiler had for wages
But his crust and bed of straw,
How he must have longed to know
What to us is freely given!
One faint glimpse of this new glow
Would have seemed to him like heaven.
Now those in the shadows standing
Are uniting and as one
Are from out their gloom demanding
Air and room beneath the sun.

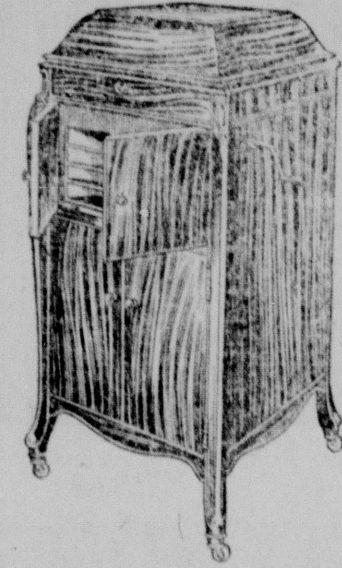

VII.
MEN of toil, march on forever
In the path to better days,
Bless the world by your endeavor
All the lowly to upraise.
Bear your standard in the van!
Make it honored, loved, respected,

Until every workingman
Neath its folds shall feel protected.
To false counsel bid defiance.
Not on violence, but right,
Place your firm and sure reliance
And thus win your bloodless fight.

JOHN LIND PLANS RETURN TO STATES

Peace Envoy to Sail on Next Liner Unless Huerta Calls Him Back.

MEXICO WAITS ON WILSON

Not Expected to Seek Reopening of Parley; Provisional President Huerta Raises Loan of 12,000,000 Pesos.

Vera Cruz, Aug. 30.—John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative, let it be understood that he will not return to Mexico City except on special invitation of President Huerta. He probably will take passage for the United States on the next Ward line steamer sailing from this port.

Rear Admiral Fletcher entertained Mr. Lind at tea on board the battleship Louisiana in the afternoon. Eleven American refugees sailed from Vera Cruz on the City of Tampico for New Orleans.

Mexico Makes No Move.
City of Mexico, Aug. 30.—The failure of John Lind to return to the capital is taken to indicate that Washington and Mexico are agreed on one thing, namely, that no good is to be accomplished by the trip. Mr. Lind is in Vera Cruz awaiting instructions.

The Mexican government has made no further proposal or concession to the United States. It is considered that the next move must be made by Washington.

Mr. Lind wired the embassy from Vera Cruz: "If I can be of any help to our neighbors I will be glad to return."

Huerta Gets a Big Loan.

Mexican officials viewed the situation as brighter because of the donation of a 12,000,000-peso loan, which was taken by three local banks—the National, the Bank of London and Mexico and the Banco de Comercio y Industria.

The exodus of Americans from the capital on account of President Wilson's warning to leave this country is growing. Many Americans, however, took the attitude that there was no reason for them to get out unless intervention was a certainty.

In the opinion of Mexican newspapers President Wilson's attitude has helped Huerta.

Bryan Forecasts Settlement.

Philadelphia, Aug. 30.—"I am glad to say the Mexican matter looks very encouraging at present and I believe it is going to grow brighter every day," declared Secretary Bryan at Doylestown, where he delivered a lecture. "I anticipate no trouble, believing that good sense and judgment on the part of Mexico will eventually prevail."

Murder Causes Yankees to Flee.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 30.—Seventy-five American men, women and children from Madera and other Chihuahua towns arrived on a special refugee train. The exodus was caused by the killing of Edmund Hayes at Madera a few days ago. Thirty-nine Chinese were also brought to the border.

Missionaries Told to Leave.

Nashville, Aug. 30.—Through Dr. W. W. Pinson, general secretary of the mission board, the Methodist Episcopal church South has wired missionaries in Mexico to leave the country.

Wilson Leaves Crisis to Lind.

Washington, Aug. 30.—Special Envoy John Lind has not gone to Mexico City, but President Wilson has gone to Cornish, N. H., to remain over Labor day and Secretary of State Bryan is off again to the Chautauqua jousts. The Mexican situation seems to be in statu quo. It was said that it had been left to Mr. Lind's judgment as to whether he should change his present base.

HINTS AT CONSPIRACY

Representative M'Dermott Denies Mulhall Charges.

Tells House Lobby Body He Heard Tribune Manager Was After Him.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The charges made against Representative M'Dermott of Chicago by Martin M. Mulhall and I. H. McMichael, former chief page of the house, were denied before the house lobby committee by M'Dermott.

Representative M'Dermott intimated strongly in his testimony that he had been made the victim of a "frame-up" by Mulhall and McMichael.

The charge that he had received $2,000 from a brewers' association in his 1910 campaign he characterized as "dreams, just dreams."

He admitted having borrowed large sums of money from George D. Hornig, a local pawnbroker, "as a friend." Mulhall and McMichael testified that M'Dermott boasted of having received $7,500 from local pawnbrokers to work against the federal loan shark law. M'Dermott declared that at times he had owed Hornig as much as $10,000.

Describing the conversation with McMichael at Engel's hotel here, M'Dermott testified:

Mr. M'Dermott.—At that time he was "telling me about this fellow Keeley of the Chicago Tribune. That is the time he said: 'Do you know Jim Keeley?' I said: 'Yes, I know him.' He said: 'He is not very much of a friend of yours.' I said: 'The Chicago Tribune has always got a hammer out for everybody.' McMichael told me Keeley said: 'I would give a thousand dollars to get something on M'Dermott.'"

The chairman.—Well, you need not go into that.

Mr. M'Dermott.—And I said: "Well, he can have that."

M'Dermott denied ever having attempted to influence congressional action on the loan shark bill.

A campaign contribution of $500 to him by the brewers in 1910 was made, he said, because of a personal friendship. He denied Mulhall's charge that he had forged a $250 check of Harold F. McCormick's and gave his version of the circumstances.

COLONEL IN NEW YORK FIGHT

Roosevelt Confers With Fusionists, Who Hold Back Decision.

New York, Aug. 30.—Theodore Roosevelt put his ear in the fusion whirlpool. He tried to straighten out a dispute that threatens to disrupt the fusionists—the dispute that arose when George McAneny and other fusion candidates refused to meet John Purroy Mitchell's desire and decline places on the Gaynor ticket before they were offered. Colonel Roosevelt met Mr. McAneny and the fusion candidates for president of the five boroughs at the Harvard club, told them they better stick by a straight fusion ticket, and heard that they intend to wait until something is offered before they accept or decline it.

HALDANE'S VISIT ENDS OLD CUSTOM

Lord High Chancellor First to Leave England in Four Centuries.

PLANS TO ADDRESS LAWYERS

Britains Chief Justice Sees Peace Era Afar; Attests Anglo-German Friendship; Approves Suffrage.

New York, Aug. 30.—Viscount Haldane, the first lord high chancellor of Great Britain to leave his country since Cardinal Wolsey went to France 400 years ago, arrived here on the steamship Lusitania for a flying visit of five days in this country and Canada.

To Visit West Point.

The lord high chancellor is here as a guest of the American Bar association, before which he will deliver an address at its annual meeting in Montreal next Monday. Tonight he was entertained at a dinner given in behalf of the association by C. A. Severance of St. Paul. His itinerary includes visits to West Point and Albany.

Lord Haldane declared that he was in favor of woman suffrage, prophesied that a millennium of peace was far off, said the relations between Germany and England were never more cordial, praised the intellectual growth of the United States and predicted that home rule for Ireland would soon be an accomplished fact.

Favors Woman Suffrage.

Lord Haldane chuckled when the question of woman suffrage was brought up.

"Yes, I am a suffragist," he said, "but I do not approve of the militant suffragettes. The methods of the English suffragettes have delayed equal suffrage for years."

The chancellor refused to discuss the Mexican situation, except to say he was "confident that the United States would deal with the question in the broad way in which it had treated other great problems."

Much interest was taken by his fellow travelers throughout the voyage of the Lusitania in Lord Strathcona, who is ninety-three years old. He is on his way to Canada, where he will remain a few days to attend to some important personal business. He said that if he was able to finish his business in time he would leave this city for England again next Wednesday, when the Lusitania begins its return trip.

STATE WINS IN THAW FIGHT

Canadian Judge Agrees to Order Production in Court at Once.

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 30.—It was reported in Sherbrooke today that Superior Judge Hutchinson, returning from his vacation, has agreed to grant to Canadian lawyers, acting for New York state, a writ of habeas corpus, calling for the production of Harry K. Thaw in court at once.

This move, if carried out, might defeat Thaw's lawyers in their attempts to keep him in jail indefinitely. William Travers Jerome, who represents New York state here in the Thaw case, refused to affirm or deny the report.

Roger Thompson, erstwhile Times square chauffeur, was released on $500 bail on the charge of having added an undesirable Thaw, to cross the border. He will be tried on these charges, barring further postponements, next Wednesday.

OREGON KID WINS BOAT RACE

Captures Webb Trophy and Prize of $1,000 at Keokuk, Ia.

Keokuk, Ia., Aug. 30.—In one of the most sensational boat races ever staged in the west, the Oregon Kid won the Webb trophy, a $1,000 cash prize, and the championship of the Mississippi valley, on the last day of the sixth annual regatta of the Mississippi Valley Power Boat association.

Hydro Bullet finished second and Barnacle third. The twenty miles were made in 26 minutes and 18 seconds, or better than forty-five miles an hour.

The Oregon Kid also won the $200 purse for class E boats, distancing the field. Teaser IV, owned by Evers and Morris of Quincy ran second.

LOSE RACE TO DYING PARENT

See Shubert and His Three Sisters Arrive Just as Father Dies.

New York, Aug. 30.—Lee and Jacob Shubert and their three sisters lost by five minutes a race against death to the bedside of their father, David, in Jamaica. The brothers and their sisters started for Jamaica from Rockaway in a high powered automobile when informed that their father was dying, and traveled at high speed to his home. The elder Shubert was seventy-five years old. He died of an attack of asthma.

MORE GOOD THINGS.

These southern biscuits are good to serve for any occasion, and are especially good split and toasted. Scald a pint of milk with a teaspoonful of lard, two of butter and two of sugar and two of salt. Dissolve a half of a yeast cake in a little of the cooled milk, beat an egg and add to it, then mix all together with six cupfuls of flour. Beat and set to rise in a covered pan or mixing bowl. For six o'clock tea, put the sponge to rise at ten o'clock in the morning. At three in the afternoon knead and roll out for ordinary biscuit; cut with a small cutter, brush the top of each biscuit with butter and put to rise. They should be very light, a little more than double their original bulk. Bake in a hot oven for fifteen minutes, or perhaps twenty.

The addition of a cup of mashed potato to these biscuits when the sponge is set makes them very moist and of good flavor.

Scotch Potato Scones.—Sift a cup and a half of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a half teaspoonful of salt, rub in a third of a cup of butter and add a cup of mashed potatoes. Make a soft dough by adding a beaten egg and milk to roll. Divide the dough into three parts and roll in rounds half an inch thick; cut and bake in a hot oven. Split, butter and serve hot.

Boneless Birds.—Cut real cutlets into two-inch squares, pound until thin salt and pepper, lay on a sprig of parsley with a piece of bacon; roll up and skewer with two toothpicks. Roll in flour and brown in a little fat, simmer gently in a little water until tender—it will take two hours. Remove the birds and add a little cream to the gravy in the pan; the addition of flour made smooth with milk need not be done if there is flour enough in the pan for the birds. Pour over the birds and serve.

Peanuts and Lettuce.—Prepare lettuce, sprinkle with finely broken, not chopped, nuts, and add a French dressing with a bit of grated onion or onion juice.

TEMPTING HOT WEATHER DISHES

When arranging for meals, it is wise to cook enough vegetables for two days, as it takes very little longer to prepare and cook them.

Tomatoes are so wholesome and are such well-liked vegetables that a variety of ways in serving is always welcome.

Tomatoes Stuffed With Nuts.—Scald, peel, core and scoop out the tomatoes and fill them with finely chopped pecan meats and cold cooked green peas. When ready to serve, heap a tablespoonful of mayonnaise on each and serve on lettuce leaves for a supper dish. This is a dish high in food value.

Bean Salad.—Drain a can of beans which comes with tomato sauce free from the sauce. Peel tomatoes, cut in halves, take out the seeds and fill each with beans, heaping them up. Place each half on lettuce and pour over a highly seasoned French dressing.

Banana Salad.—Slice very ripe bananas over lettuce leaves, allowing one large banana for each person. Chill and serve with French dressing at serving time.

Nova Scotia Eggs.—Prepare rounds of toast, and when well buttered, cover with codfish in a white sauce, the fish being soaked over night and shredded; then add to the white sauce. After placing the toast, put a poached egg on each and serve on a platter garnished with parsley.

Cold fruit soups are palatable to some, but fresh fruit is much easier to prepare and is always well liked. Fresh sorrel shredded with lettuce and cabbage makes a most tasty salad, served with French dressing.

First Newspaper.

The Acta Diurna (Acts of the Day), instituted by Julius Caesar, comes about as near being the first newspaper as anything we can find. There was an official editor, and the gazette was exhibited daily in public. It was copied by scribes, who sold it to their customers. The Acta contained announcements or decrees by the government, notices relating to the courts, and other matters of public interest, such as birth marriages and deaths. It had a wide circulation and in many ways fulfilled the office of a regular newspaper.

Movies and Melodrama.

In the motion picture the actors are called upon to face, not mere technique—hairbreadth escapes and rescues which the audience know are feigned, but the actual crises of life. This is one reason why the "movies" have driven off the stage the old-fashioned melodrama. In the outdoor scenes they actually do the things that are shown on the screen; they ride the horse, run the automobile, row the boat. In bitter winter weather the actor leaps into the ocean and drags to the shore the drowning heroine; or some young girl descends by rope ladder from the fifth story of a tenement; or in the battle scene soldiers fall from their charging horses and lie on the ground, trusting the other riders not to trample them. Surely, this takes courage. This is not melodrama in the old sense, not merely acting; it is life itself, one of those rare crises that call out the unusual courage of a heroine.—American Magazine.

Reading the Bible.

Of all English writers none is under a deeper debt of obligation to the Bible than Ruskin. His works team with quotations from it. In "Ethics of the Dust," for instance—one of the shorter books—there are no fewer than 32 direct quotations from Scripture. And Ruskin has taught us how the Bible should be read. "The way in which common people read their Bibles," he writes, "is just like the way the old monks thought hedgehogs ate grapes. They rolled themselves (it was said) over and over where the grapes lay on the ground. When fruit struck to their spines they carried off and ate. So your hedgehoggy readers roll themselves over and over their Bibles and declare that whatever sticks to their own spines is Scripture and that nothing else is. But you can only get the skins of the text that way. If you want their juice you must press them in cluster."—London Chronicle.

Bravery of a Bridegroom.

No sir—bravery still flourishes in this land of the free. Proof? Certainly—here it is. Moses Garnett, who was married in Cincinnati the other day, paid out the last 70 cents in his possession for the marriage ceremony, and went hopefully with his bride to honeymoon in search of a job and a home. Takes a certain kind of courage to turn a trick like that. You can readily name the variety for yourself. Of course daring sometimes means success. At other times it means severe jarring and disillusionment. Yet some persons possess an excess of caution and as a consequence never arrive anywhere. The correct course? Why debate such a question? Why not consult the faculty of judgment? Daring tempered with judgment is always a good thing, isn't it?—Detroit Free Press.

Strawberries in Literature.

Dr. William Butler, who died in 1621, is credited with the origin of the remark about the strawberry. "The Lord might have made a better berry than the strawberry, but he never did." Thomas Fuller, the English divine and historian, in his "History of the Worthies of England," that has delighted readers of more than two centuries, styled Dr. Butler the Aesculapian of his age. Isaac Walton in "The Complete Angler," said: "We may say of angling as Dr. Boteler said of strawberries, 'Doubtless God could have made a better berry, but doubtless God never did; and so if I might be judge, God never did make a more calm, quiet, innocent recreation than angling.'"

Queen Mary's Dress Eclipsed Others.

It appears that among all the elaborate dresses worn at the wedding of the kaiser's daughter that of her majesty, Queen Mary, was singled out for special admiration. Magnificent as was the green jeweled brocade and velvet of the German empress, the silver brocade and pink velvet of the crown princess, the cloth of gold and train of Irish lace worn by Queen Mary eclipsed them. The gown was worked with a design of flowers in colored diamante, and the lace train was lined with cloth of gold and had a deep embroidery in leaf design. Her jewels were magnificent, comprising the diamond crown, the lesser Star of Africa and a deep collar, also diamonds.

Origin of Irish Lace.

Irish lace originated from the failure of the potato crop that caused the famine of 1846. The abbeys of a convent in County Cork, looking about for some lucrative employment to help the half-starved children who attended her schools, unraveled thread by thread a scrap of point de Milan, and finally mastered the complicated details. She then selected the girls who were quickest of needlework and taught them what she had painfully learned. The new industry prospered and one of the pupils, in a pardonable "bull," declared that "if it had not been for the famine we would all have starved."

These are cookies which will keep a long time. Cream a cupful of butter, add a cupful and a half of sugar, then three eggs well beaten, a teaspoonful of soda dissolved in half a cup of hot water; stir in three cupfuls of flour, a half teaspoonful of nutmeg and finally a cupful of currants. Drop by spoonfuls on a buttered sheet and bake in a moderate oven until the cookies are a good brown.

HELPFUL HINTS.

One may boil a pudding in a double boiler instead of the old-time pudding bag. Line the upper part of the boiler with oiled paper, turn in the pudding and it will come out in good shape.

A good habit to follow is folding the string which came round the parcel in the wrapping paper, then when a paper and string is needed the string will fit the paper.

Wedding plates used for engraving cards of invitation or announcement may be made into useful articles. Some have them made into trays, others into small stands for teapots or vases by having small balls soldered to each corner.

Make a list of medicines, antidotes for poisons and keep it fastened inside the medicine closet, where it can be quickly glanced at. Such a precaution may save a life.

Have your kitchen table made to fit you, high enough to work at it without stooping.

When it is necessary to beat upholstered furniture and it cannot be taken out doors, a good way is to cover it with a damp cloth and beat; the dust clings to the cloth.

When a finger is cut while working, wrap a thin piece of cloth over the end and slip on a thimble until there is time to attend to it properly.

When using a dish pan, turn the handles so that the wishes will not be nicked by striking against the handles.

Coarse sand paper kept near at hand will save much scraping of dishes which are scorched.

When hemming children's dresses on the machine, use very fine thread, then when the times come for lengthening, a pull will break the threads.

Under skirts made of the same kind of goods as the work dress are neat, and always look better than a petticoat of another color.

When gold fish are sluggish, a salt bath does them good. Let them lie in the water not longer than five minutes, and they will be as lively as ever.

HURRY-UP DISHES.

This is a simple dessert which may be prepared on short notice:

White Pudding and Chocolate Sauce.—Beat together until smooth three-fourths of a cup of flour, a teaspoonful of salt and a cup of milk; when smooth, add three more cupfuls of milk and cook twenty minutes in a double boiler. Then turn into a pudding dish and serve with chocolate sauce. Mix in a saucepan a cup of sugar, one and a half squares of chocolate, grated, and four tablespoonfuls of boiling water. Stir and cook until smooth and glossy. Then add a cup of hot milk, flavor with vanilla and serve hot.

Current Cookies.—These are cookies which will keep a long time. Cream a cupful of butter, add a cupful and a half of sugar, then three eggs well beaten, a teaspoonful of soda dissolved in half a cup of hot water; stir in three cupfuls of flour, a half teaspoonful of nutmeg and finally a cupful of currants. Drop by spoonfuls on a buttered sheet and bake in a moderate oven until the cookies are a good brown.

Curried Rice.—Wash a cup of rice and put to cook in a quart of boiling water with half a teaspoonful of salt. Boil rapidly until the rice has absorbed all the water; set back and cook until dry. Let stand covered in a warm place for an hour. For the curry, put one and a half tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan and add a sliced apple and onion; stir and cook until brown, add a tablespoonful of sugar, one of flour and a teaspoonful of curry powder. Stir until well mixed, then add a quart of stock; if no stock is at hand, use water with a teaspoonful of beef extract. Season with salt. Meat and fish may be added to this sauce, and the rice may be put as a border to the meat and sauce on the platter.

Voices of the Wood.

To some people the trees talk—if you are to believe the people. They dare not try to put what they get into language, because they know that to do so will be to silence the trees. Living in cities they naturally get out of touch with trees, but put them back in the forest and, likely as not, they will be caught in a listening attitude, a listening and watching attitude. That little ripple up toward the topmost leaves that a painter would have to paint golden or liquid or both, if it were the impression he was after, delivers its message to the one who understands. That urgent sweep of the strong gray wind going westward communicates something to the trees and the trees pass it on—to the one who can hear. "Take me back to the wood," said Jeanne d'Arc, "and I shall hear the voices."

The basic principle of corset excellency is in the boning. The Nu Bone corset is boned with triple wire stays, rust-proof and unbreakable. Astonishing results in the way of support are thus obtained without the rigidity characteristic to solid steels or the flimsiness common to other wire bonings. Reach me by postal card or call at my house Saturdays. Mrs. Mary Flick, 417 E. Chamberlain St., Dixon, Ill. 32
